

Dr Hardip Singh Gendeh is a specialist Otorhinolaryngologist, Head and Neck Surgeon and lecturer at the Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia Medical Center (UKMMC), Kuala Lumpur Malaysia. He obtained his bachelor in Medical Science (BMedSci) and Bachelor of Medicine Bachelor of Surgery (BMBS) at the University of Nottingham, United Kingdom in 2009 and 2011 respectively. Dr Gendeh served as a junior house officer at the Nottingham University Hospitals in Nottingham prior to returning to Malaysia in 2012. He obtained his Doctor of Otorhinolaryngology, Head and Neck (Dr ORL-HNS) specialty training from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia in 2019. During his specialty training, Dr Gendeh researched in Ear, Nose and Throat Foreign bodies among children.

Dr Gendeh serves in Malaysian Medical Association as the SCHOMOS representative, UKM Allergic Rhinitis Association vice president, Young Scientist and Clinician Association of UKM committee and many more. He has over twenty peer-reviewed international publications, book chapters and several research grants. He has been involved in the organisation of several international and local conferences pertaining to ENT and medicine. He occasionally contributes in health matters for the newspapers.